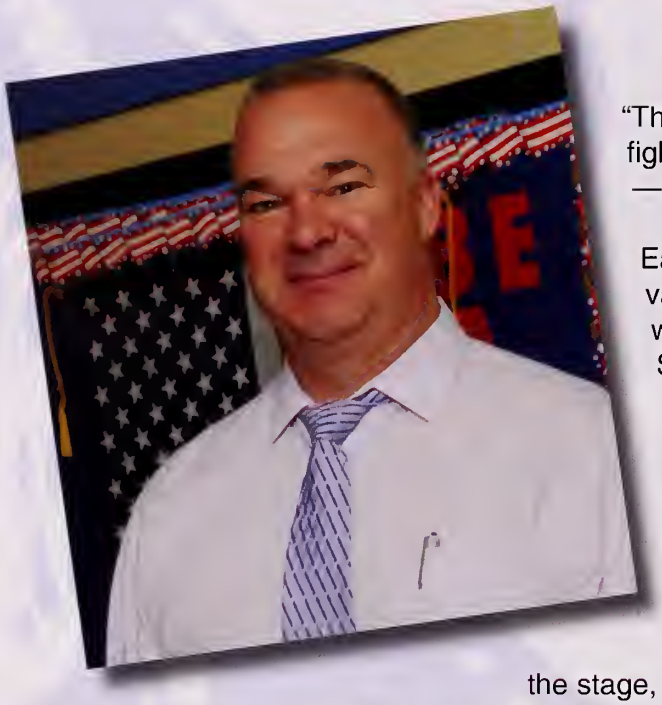
letter from the Principal



"The secret of change is to focus all of your energy, not on fighting the old, but on building the new."
— Socrates

Each year brings a new class of students with new faces, varied personalities and lofty aspirations. In the fall of 2009 we welcomed the class of 2013 to the Wilmington High School family. I remember meeting with all of you in the auditorium on the first day of school. I gave you the same speech I have given previous classes, but I noticed something different about your class; you were a very cohesive group with a quiet confidence. Although I'm sure you had many of the same fears as previous freshmen, you went to work immediately to make your mark at WHS.

I had the good fortune to watch your success on the field, the stage, in the community and in the classroom. I was always impressed with your poise, dedication, spirit and the way you always took care of one another. To say the Class of 2013 left their mark would be an understatement. You never hesitated to take on a challenge.

Each year at the start of school I challenged you to think about the things you did well and to continue them. More importantly, I challenged you to reflect upon what didn't go so well and reminded you that you had time to tackle those challenges and to work to make them positive experiences that would contribute to your personal growth. Overall, you met the challenges and came together, as I thought you would, to lead WHS both in and out of the classroom.

As you begin your journey beyond WHS, you will need to utilize all of the skills you learned throughout your four years and apply them to life's next challenges. I am confident you will succeed based on your track record. "Focus all of your energy" on building the next segment of a successful life. It is yours to define and all of ours to enjoy!

Be great, always!

Mr. Tracy

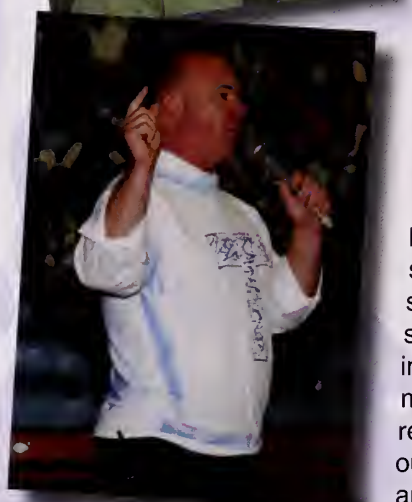
the 2013 yearbook is dedicated to...

Principal Eric Tracy



A principal has many roles to fill. He is an administrator, a mentor, a disciplinarian, an educator and most importantly a leader. In 2004, Eric Tracy accepted the position of principal at Wilmington High School and immediately demonstrated that he possessed the skills and commitment to successfully perform all of these roles. Under his leadership, the school's accomplishments have been many including the NEASC accreditation, increased MCAS scores by thirty percent in the Advanced and Proficient categories, broader course offerings to better prepare students for college, plans for the new high school, and even a few State Championship titles. Mr. Tracy is a modest man and attributes much of the school's success to the tremendous support received from the community.

Mr. Tracy is an approachable and effective leader who is well-liked and respected. He takes great pride in his job and has helped orchestrate many significant changes at WHS. Whether it relates to academics, sports, or other school activities and programs, he always has the best interest of the students in mind when making decisions. Mr. Tracy has taught Wilmington students that most everything they will strive for in life will require hard work and that they are responsible for their own personal success or failure. There have been numerous instances where he has challenged his students to "rise to the occasion," and most often they did just that. Prom night is always a sleepless and difficult one for Mr. Tracy because he thinks of each and every WHS student as his own child. It is this genuine concern that will be missed most by students, parents and faculty.

As Plato said, "The direction in which education starts a man will determine his future in life." Hopefully the education and values that students of WHS have acquired under the guidance of Mr. Tracy, will provide a foundation for future happiness and success.

This year we dedicate the Hourglass Yearbook to Principal Eric Tracy to show our respect for everything he has accomplished at WHS and to demonstrate our appreciation for his support and encouragement to "always reach for the stars."

Thank you Mr. Tracy and we wish you the best at Hamilton-Wenham.
We will not disappoint you.

The Class of 2013

class history

From the moment Mr. Tracy said, "These next four years are going to fly by", little did we know how accurate he was. After being the big fishes for a year at the middle school, all of us were about to be met with new challenges that would push us like never before. The moment we stepped into the high school that first day, all of our lives changed.

Freshman year started off huge for the Class of 2013. The year began with class elections that put Wayne Huynh as President, Jeff Favuzza as Vice President, and Brooks Carter as Treasurer. Although not officially elected, Kaitlin Kinsella would stand in as the Secretary for the officers. This group of officers knew how to start things right by calling on a few friends to start a fundraising committee. The first order of business was decorating the spirit wall and taking part in our very first spirit week. Seeing everyone participate and show their high school spirit is something we will never forget. Between the officers and the committee members, planning the cookie dough fundraiser and Spring Fling were a piece of cake. While all of this was going on at WHS, the world was dealing with stuff of its own. That was the year the earthquake ravaged Haiti and efforts all around the country poured in to provide support. Everything the officers and the committee accomplished that year wouldn't have happened without the guidance of advisors Ms. O'Mara and Mr. Maloney. The Class of 2013 worked hard that year and proved that they were a class full of potential in the years to come.

Some would argue that sophomore year is the hardest academic year and many students would attest to that. When people hear sophomore year, the first thing they think about is the sophomore research paper. The yearlong research paper was grueling but like other challenges the Class of 2013 faced, it was no problem. This year the President, Vice President, and Treasurer all retained their positions while Kait Kinsella became the official Secretary and Holly Niemiec became the Public Relations Officer for the group. The Cookie Dough Fundraiser continued with success and the greatly loved Valentine's Day candygram fundraiser witnessed its first year. In conjunction with the Class of 2014, Spring Fling was planned and executed with success while everyone who went had an unforgettable time. The 2010-2011 school year was not only significant to the students because it was the year when Operation Iraqi Freedom ended and the repeal of the Don't Ask Don't Tell policy was signed; 2011 was the year of the tragic earthquake and tsunami that hit Japan and left it as the largest nuclear accident in history. In lighter news, the Class of 2013 as expected, passed their last MCAS with flying colors and turned their attention to something scarier, deciding their future.

As is customary, junior year is the year that everyone knows the goal at hand, preparing themselves for college. As kids began to take SATs and ACTs, the Class of 2013 once again entrusted the same officers from years prior to take the lead on class events. This year the class officers decided to implement another committee that became the prom committee. The members of the committee spanned the entire class and welcomed anyone that was willing to contribute to making junior prom an unforgettable one. This year a new tradition was created in the form of a school wide dodgeball tournament that pitted students of any class against each other as well as team of Teacher All-Stars. While the committees and officers worked hard to provide their fellow classmates with a great prom, the students did not go unnoticed for their hard work. This was the year the Boys Varsity Hockey team rode their season all the way to the Garden and took home the State trophy. It was without a doubt that the Class of 2013 featured amazing athletes and hard-working scholars. With all that was going on in each student's lives, it was hard not to take notice of the Arab Spring protests, the SOPA blackout, the Patriots losing to the Giants....again, and the epic movie known as The Avengers making its debut. The end of 2011 and the beginning of 2012 were event filled years and the students did well to stay focused on the task at hand. While this academic year came to a close, the final summer as WHS students began and it seemed as if everything was flying by even faster.

Before we knew it, senior year was at our doorstep and people were both excited and nervous. Applications to colleges were sent out and everyone awaited their decisions. Applications for scholarship after scholarship increased as the price of college increased dramatically. This year posed new challenges to the returning officers and the newly fused fundraising and prom committees that became known as the Senior Class Committee. The loss of the high school gymnasium only forced the class to work around and continue the dodgeball tournament before demolition and continue the Senior vs. Faculty Basketball game at the middle school. Before the loss of the gym, the senior class was able to host their very last spirit week and pep rally. Watching everyone take part in a school tradition and do it with so much flavor truly showed how proud we all are to be wildcats. Megan Priem embodied all of this in her victory to become Miss WHS early in the year. The loss of the Royal Dynasty fundraiser dealt a heavy blow as well as the new wellness policy that prevented bake sales and candy gram sales. However, instead of candygrams the seniors sold wooden roses on Valentine's Day that were a hit among the students and made up for much of the lost funds. To further compensate for the loss of the gym, the senior class took on the Prom Fashion show and combined it with the Prom Expo to make one huge event. Later on in the year as students began to hear back from colleges, prom quickly approached. Prom was one of the Class's last hurrahs and they definitely made it so. This was the year we lost a member of the class, Joe Murphy. His loss will never be forgotten. Between all the senior festivities and graduation, relocated to the Shriner's this year, one couldn't help but have a gut-wrenching feeling. The success of the Boy's Varsity Hockey team as well as the Girls' Varsity Basketball team advancing so deep into the state tournament is something we'll always cherish. Not to mention the enormous success that came from the Drama Department with the work they've done at the One Act Festival. They advanced to the semi-finals and finals for the first time in WHS history. As we move on, these are the memories we will always carry with us. The faces we saw everyday growing up weren't going to be there anymore. Many of us had finally become adults even if we didn't act like it. After surviving the "end of the world" that was supposed to occur on December 21, 2012, it was finally time for the seniors to pass the torch.

The Class of 2013 will definitely go down as one of the most successful classes in Wilmington High School history. The teachers and staff did a wonderful job in guiding us to where we are and where we one day hope to be. The Class of 2013 embodies the best and the brightest of WHS. With the world ahead of all of us, it is safe to say that WHS has prepared each and every one of us as best as it could. Now it is our turn to go on discover ourselves and see what we are all truly made of.

I'll miss you, my friend

Take a look at my eyes, tell me what do you see?
Feeling so helpless, the result of defeat
My head keeps spinning, like a loose hurricane
I can tell you, but can't show you my true pain
Revisiting visions, of the day of your death
I held you in my arms, and saw your last breath
We felt like strangers to the world, A two of a kind
Only wanting normal lives, but always declined
We had each other though, through all the pain and sorrow
They say life's too short, but they don't say that it's hollow
So we lived to the fullest, being carefree
But now there's no you, and now there's just me
A frozen heart, my feelings are numb
Emotions reduced...to nothing but crumbs
I wish you were here, right by my side
So cold and alone, I'm dying inside
But I now know your safe, up there in heaven
And know I'll visit, every 6th of the seven
An angel on earth, you were always protective
But now it's your turn, in paradise rested
You'll truly be missed, my dearest friend
But one day I'll find you, to say hi again

It has been four incredible years. We were made here. Some of us will run from this place. Others will never leave. But we are here. As we go forth, clutching family and friends, remember that we have a purpose, and we must decide what to do with the time given to us. Sometimes the hardest thing and the right thing are the same. Thank you for this experience. Take care.

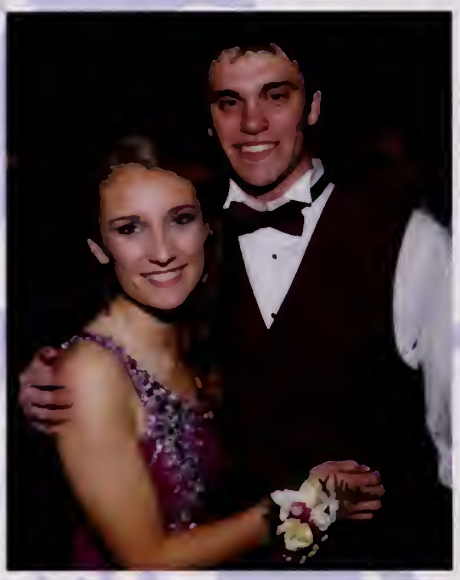
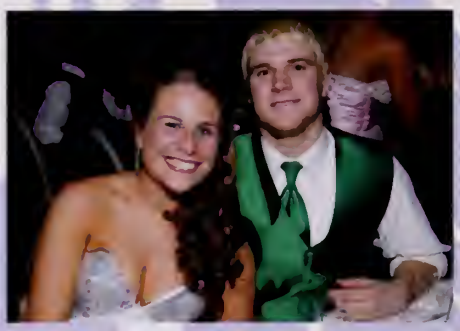
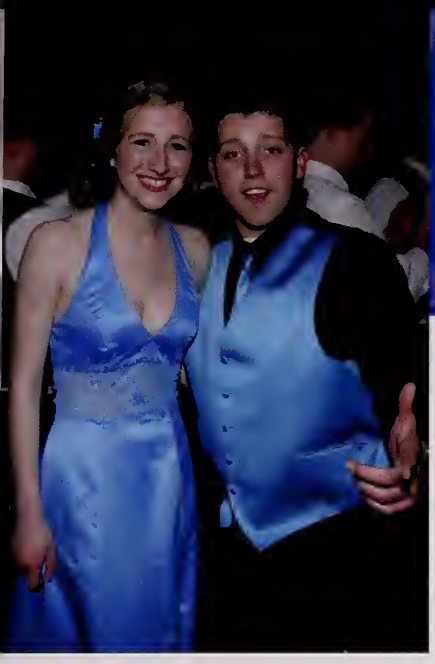
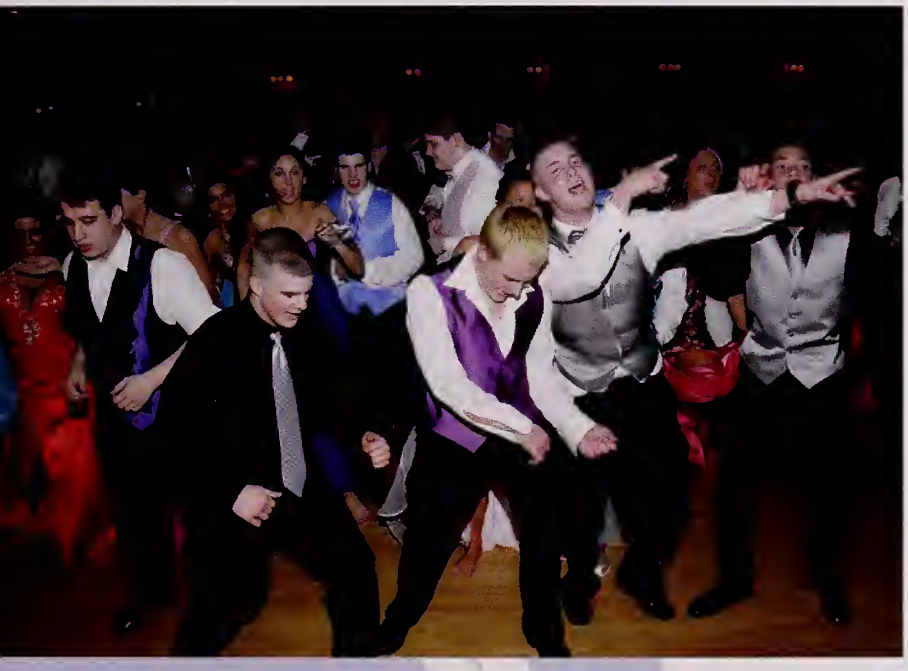
junior prom 2012

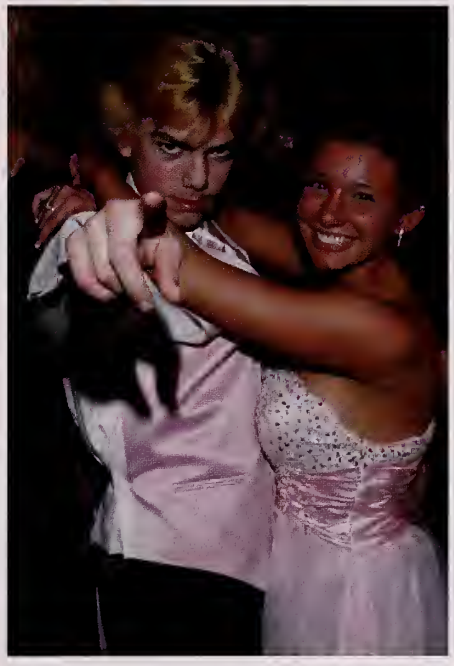


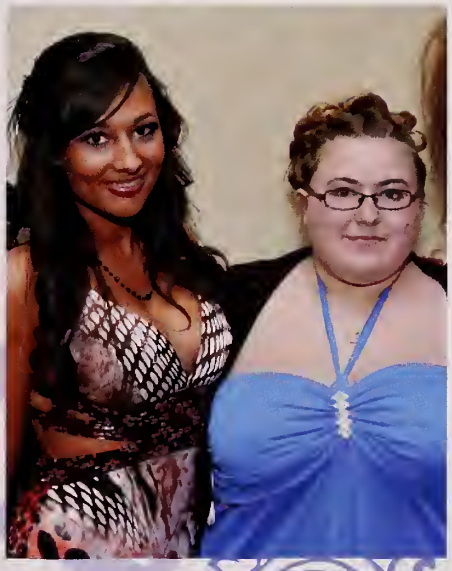


On a rare but much welcomed warm March day, the junior class of 2013 finally had their chance to put on their formal wear and attend their first prom together. Held at Hillview Country Club, the juniors rolled up in style, with limos and cars filling up the parking lot. The star studded, night sky theme made everyone shine their brightest, and there was a glow in the room. The night went smoothly, with everyone lined up for pictures, or out on the dance floor, showing off their moves. The night was capped off with the presentation of the prom court and King and Queen, won by Sam Borseti and Holly Niemiec. The night was a success by all and was a great way to start the spring!



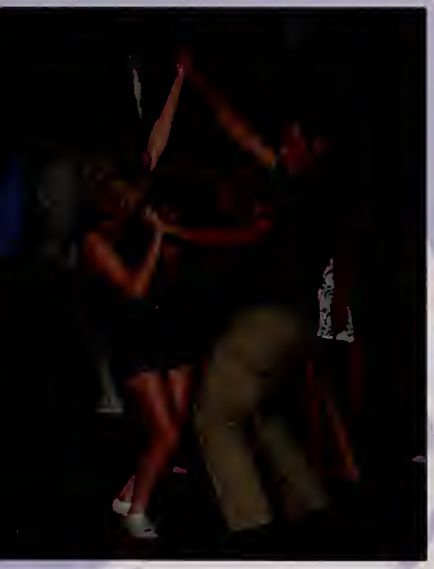


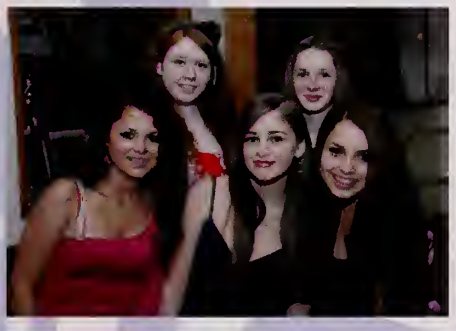




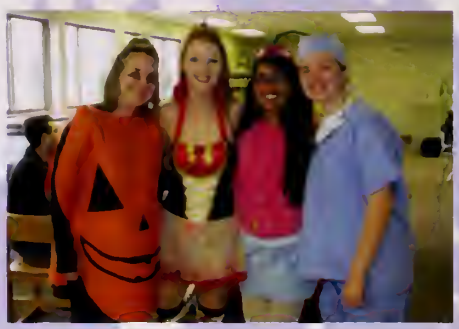
homecoming 2012

As the 2012-2013 school year started, the students at WHS started to get into the swing of things. September rolled around, and with it, Homecoming. Held on a Saturday, it gave the fall athletes a chance to finish up their practices before coming to the dance, and other students time to prepare for the night ahead! The gym filled up quick, with the majority of the students in attendance. Whether it was dancing under the spotlight, the circle that formed for the Dougie, or the presentation of Kim O'Dea and Arthur Papastathis as the Homecoming King and Queen, this years Homecoming was one to remember.

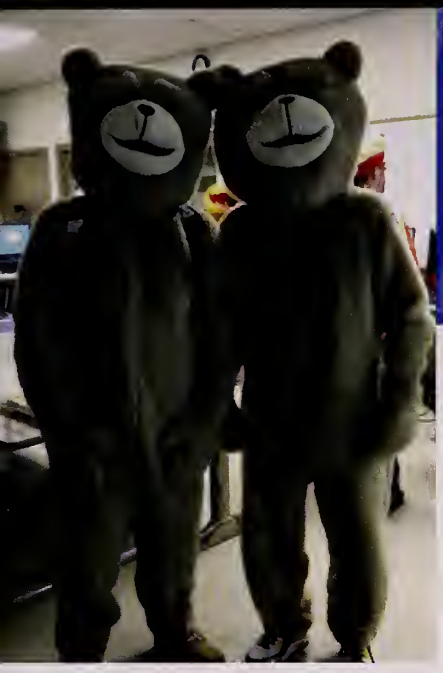


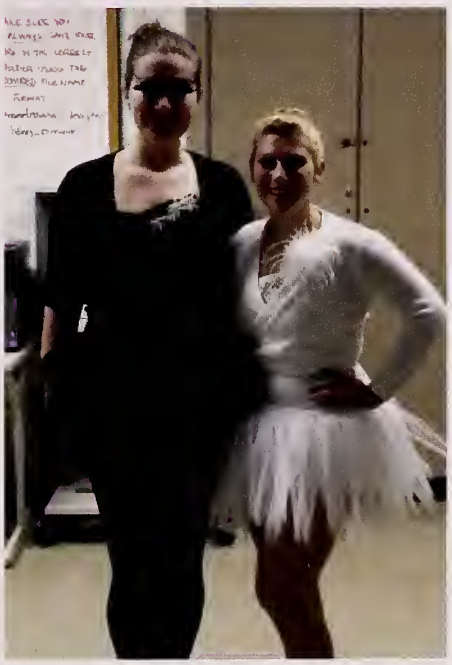


spirit week
class day



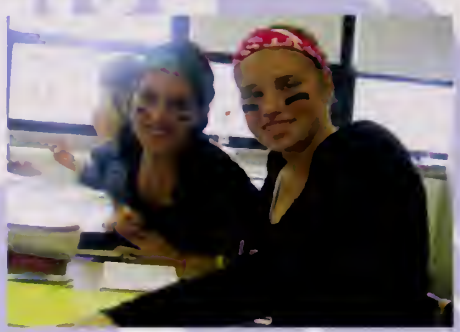
The first day of Spirit Week rolled into town with the student body pumped up and ready to go. The seniors got creative with their costumes, as their theme was costume/Halloween. iParty was used to its full advantage this year for sure, with the halls of WHS resembling a cartoon metropolis. The juniors showed up as TV characters, both the known as well as the more obscure characters. The red carpet was out for the sophomores who showed up as celebrities, dazzling their peers with their appearances. Finally, the freshmen showed up dressed as their dream job, with many outstanding costumes and ideas. The first day of Spirit Week started off with a bang, a preview of what was to come.



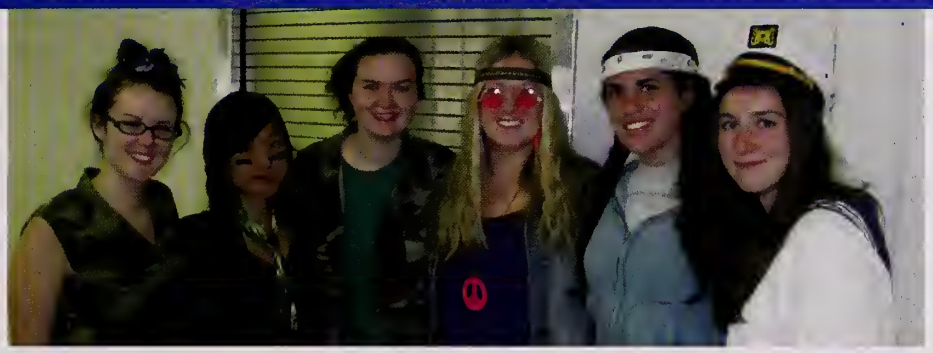


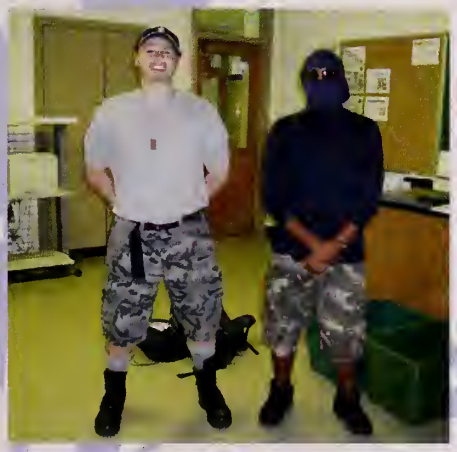
spirit week

military day



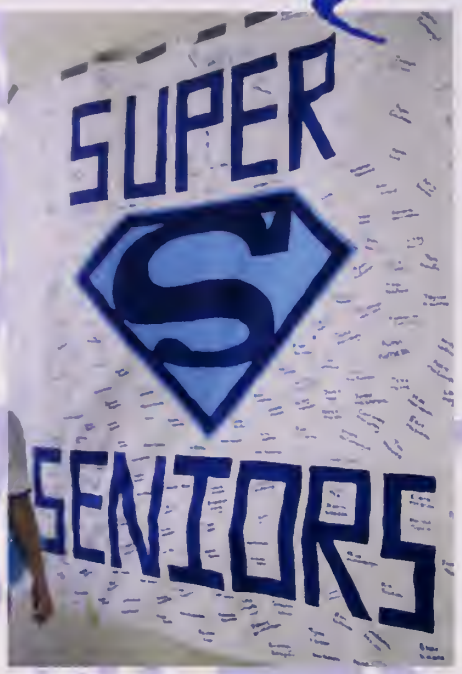
On the second day of Spirit Week, students at WHS showed their support for the brave men and women of our United States Military by wearing military memorabilia and gear to school. Commandos and sailors alike roamed the halls all day, keeping our school safe from any outside intruders. As well as military uniforms, some students wore peace clothing, expressing their desire for the safe return of our soldiers back home. Either way, students showed their patriotism and supported their country and their community.





spirit week

sports day



With Spirit Week halfway to the end, Sports Day was upon the school. Jerseys, t-shirts, and equipment galore could be found throughout the building. The creativity was off the charts this day, with students exploring every avenue for a new idea. From the Quidditch team on the common, to the world class cyclist, to the boxers and pro sports players, it is safe to say no stone was left unturned. Everyone gave their all on this day and made it a fun, creative, and spirit filled day.

blue & white

As Spirit Week came to a close, they saved the best for last. Blue and White Day. Arguably the biggest and craziest day in everyone's high school career, this year's Blue and White day proved no different. Face paint could not be found in stores for a 10 mile radius, and blue and white beads were a hot commodity. The students left nothing behind them, painting faces, making shirts, and wearing multiple shirts and socks. The culmination of the day ended with the Pep Rally in the gym. Students filed in with the band playing the fight song in the background, arranging themselves by class on the bleachers. Mr. Tracy delivered a speech that got the crowd going, and the cheers of each class were the loudest they've been in years. The rally ended with the famous roller coaster of each fan section, with the seniors edging out the other classes with their performance. For the seniors, it was a great way to end their final Spirit Week, and for the other classes, it was a preview of much more to come!

mr. & ms. whs

This year, Brendan Ahern, Jack Campbell, Erica Mullaney, Megan Priem and Craig Smith competed for the title of Mr. and Mrs. WHS Contestants were judged in several different categories, including formal wear, talent, their school spirit, and an interview. Hosts Mike Semonelli and Chloe Castellano did an amazing job entertaining the crowd during intermissions and introducing the contestants. Performances ranged from renditions of A Whole New World from Aladdin, Breakin' Free from High School Musical, and Gangam Style, as well as dance routines and A Cappella singing. After a faculty vote, junior Craig Smith and senior Megan Priem were crowned Mr. and Mrs. WHS.

prom fashion show

As the winter comes to a close, the spring blooms into one of the most exciting times at the highschool: prom season. To start things off right, the senior class hosted the Prom Fashion show, an opportunity for seniors and juniors to showcase a few of the newest styles and designs. It gave some the chance to wear something they wouldn't normally wear to a prom, diversifying the looks of the "models". The students loved the chance to wear the dresses and tuxes, and were excited to showcase their signature move. The night was a success, with the senior class raising money for future events!

julius caesar

The WHS Lamplighter's Drama Guild presented William Shakespeare's Julius Caesar as their fall production. The cast and crew worked very hard preparing for the play, and it definitely paid off. They took on the daunting cast of Shakespeare brilliantly, and the play really showcased their talents, taking the audience through the life and betrayal of Julius Caesar by one of his closest confidantes, Brutus. Actors did a truly amazing job and impressed the crowd with their abilities. From the set, to the actors, to the crew and directing, the fall production ended up being a huge success and great show.

football

The Wilmington high school football team began its journey for the fall 2012 season in late August under the hot summer sun. With ten plus returning seniors, the squad was anxious to make a statement in the Middlesex league. The first game under the lights proved to be a battle for the wildcats and ended in a loss. The next week the team bounced back for a win against D1 powerhouse Waltham, with a stunning effort by Justin MacKinnon. The wildcats would then fall to their opponents for 6 more games, until a Friday night in Woburn turned the tide for Wilmington. The rest of the season was full of tight games and hard fought battles, but in the end the wildcats ended the season with a 2-9 record.

While the season may not have been one for the record books, the season was a success. The seniors of the team that had been playing with their teammates since pop Warner were able to end their football careers by playing with the kids they had grown up with. The juniors and sophomores learned valuable lessons that will contribute to their success in the future. While on paper the success of the season may not be strong, it was in the will and the spirit of the team that made the season worthwhile.

Coach: Mike Barry Team Roster: B. Ahern, R.J. Anglemeyer, P. Barry, S. Borsetti, D. Caira, K. Dunfey, J. Gingras, T. Homola, J. MacKinnon, E. Masiello, D. Pendenza, T. Penney, B. Priem, S. Silva, S. Surrette, B. Walker, T. Woods, C. Ahern, R. Carroccino, S. Coakley, M. Curtis, K. Dunnett, T. Fraser, E. Jennings, J. Mack, S. Manganelli, P. O'Connell, D. Paige, C. Popa, T. Vibert, J. Davey, R. Leighton, A. Lespelance, D. Masiello, A. Murray, J. O'Regan, M. Penney, C. Pennie, E. Raffi, N. Raffi, J. Scurto, T. Stein, N. Vince, J. Visalli

The varsity cheerleaders showed their support through both the fall and winter seasons cheering for the football and basketball teams. Aside from attending all games, pep rallies, and entertaining the crowd, the cheerleading team under the leadership of Coach Nicole Minghella French came in first place at their league competition and proceeded to regionals.

Led by captain Brittany Zaccagnini along with seniors Taylor Howlett, Shannon McHugh, Allie Silva, and Kiley Burke the team continued to demonstrate an outstanding amount of skill and qualified with a high score in the division two league and went on to states. Following in the tradition of former Wilmington cheerleaders, they were recognized as on of the strongest teams in Massachusetts.

The Boys Varsity Soccer team once again exceeded expectations this year despite losing many valuable starters and having only five seniors in the line-up for the fall 2012 season. These seniors include: Chris Palmerino, Peter Warren, and Captains Colin Doherty, Eric Jaeschke, and Mitchell DeAmbrose. Low expectations, however, were unable to stop this team from making a good run in the state tournament and advancing as far as the semi-finals. With the experience of head coach Steve Scanlon and 17 returning juniors, the Wildcats are not done yet. Congratulations on a great season, and good luck for the seasons to come.

Coaches: Steve Scanlon, Dennis Ingram; Team Roster: P. Warren, A. Neville, V. Poli, C. Michaelangelo, E. Jaeschke, C. Palmerino, L. Foley, C. Doherty, A. O'Neal, M. Goulet, K. Souza, C. Townsend, J. After an unfortunate loss in pks in the first round of the playoffs last year, the lady cats had a lot to prove coming into this season. Led by senior captains Jackie Kennedy, Lauren McKenna, and Holly Niemiec, they cinched the Middlesex Freedom League title after finishing the regular season with a record of 12-3-3. In the first round of the playoffs, they edged out Marblehead with a 1-0 victory. In their quarter final game against Wayland they won in penalty kicks after senior goalie Kim Woods made three key saves. After beating Hamilton-Wenham 2-0 in the Division II North semi-final, they became the first team in the program's history to play in the Division II North Final. Unfortunately their post season run came to an end in a hard fought battle to Belmont with a 1-0 loss. Many players were recognized for their efforts, as Holly Niemiec, Kait Curley, Alex Biscoff, and Lauren McKenna were all named league allstars, and Kelly Hartsough and Christina Spinos were named as honorable mentions. Holly Niemiec was also named as league MVP, Eastern Massachusetts allstar, and named to the Massachusetts Allstate team for Division II. The wildcats hope to continue their success next year.

field hockey

The varsity field hockey team had a successful season on and off the field. The program lead by new coach Leanne Ebert as well as returning JV coach Diane DeMaggio and returning freshmen coach Maureen O'Mara opened the eyes of the young team and showed the players what it was really like to work together and understand the team's strengths and weaknesses as a whole. Captains Emily Colosimo and Megan Howland also played a big part in leading the team to many victories.

The field hockey team accomplished many things throughout the season including coming together off the field by participating in the Kelli Murray annual road race. As a team they helped raise money for the Kelli Murray Memorial Scholarship Fund and cheered each other on. The team also came together when raising money through the local 99 restaurant. By doing this, some proceeds went back to the Friends of Field Hockey Organization.

The girls had a successful season ending with a great record. After qualifying for the state tournament, the team was able to make it to the second round. Overall the Wildcats had a successful season. Next year the team will be led by some great seniors who will lead the team through another triumphant season!

The Varsity golf squad completed another season full of action, adventure, and great golf play this fall. The Wildcats were led by strong leadership under coach Stephen Lynch and senior captains Jeff Favuzza and Matthew Chiricosta. Other starters were seniors Andrew Morris, Jack Campbell, and Matt Boutoures; junior Ryan "Larry" McEvoy; and sophomores Joey Marino, Glen Sullivan, and Johnny Galasso.

The Wildcats had a tough year on the links this year, posting a 3-13 record and failing to make the playoffs; however, there were numerous victories among the team. Wilmington showed up to play in every match and improved throughout the season. Despite the high number of graduating seniors on the team, next year still looks promising for there was vast improvement among the underclassmen led by next year's captain Larry McEvoy. Wilmington's sub-par record did not show the pride, passion, and heart the Wildcat golf squadron played with this season as they bonded together as brethren to battle in every match.

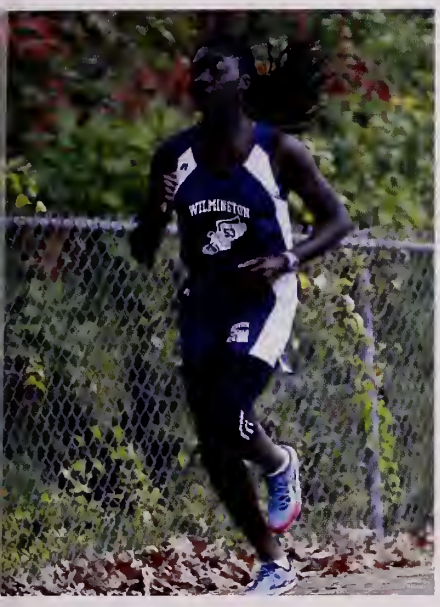
The Boys Cross Country team put together a successful season, marked by strong performances from the senior class. The boys finished 2-3 (?) in the Middlesex League Small School Division, with the guidance of new coach Brian Schell. The team was led by seniors Erik Alatalo, Steve Halas, and Andrew Sears, who led by example as the top 3 runners of the team and League All-Stars. Halas was also named team MVP, setting a new course record. Both Halas and Alatalo qualified for the All-State Meet – the first boys to do so in several years. Seniors Adam Maienza and Dan Fothergill also gave strong performances, adding depth to the talented squad. Junior Sam Alatalo and sophomore Chirs Maienza led the way for the underclassmen. Next year looks to be exciting as the Wildcats rebuild from the loss of their seniors and face a new home course.

Coach: Brian Schell; Team Roster: E. Alatalo, S. Alatalo, N. Connors, K. Dunn, M. Ferrara, D. Fothergill, S. Halas*, C. Houde, J. Larosa, A. Maienza, C. Maienza, M. Ouellette, N. Pappas, A. Sears*, J. Stanford, Z. Thomas, R. Williams*



The Girls Cross Country team had a wonderful season this year. They came in for a close second place in the small league division. Freshman Callie O'Connell went undefeated in divisional meets, tied the high school course record, earned a medal in States, and went on to represent the team in All-States. The most memorable meet was the last home meet of the season where almost everyone made a personal record. A highlight of the season was at the MSTCA Division 2 Coaches Invitational, the proud team had many athletes earn medals including: Callie O'Connell, Katelyn Richardson, Jackie Ryan, and Maeve Sullivan. Everyone performed well and it was a season to be proud of. The team was led by co-captains Savannah Hubbard and Katelyn Richardson, as well as seniors Rachel Donahue, Scarlett Salerno, and Michelle Barnes.

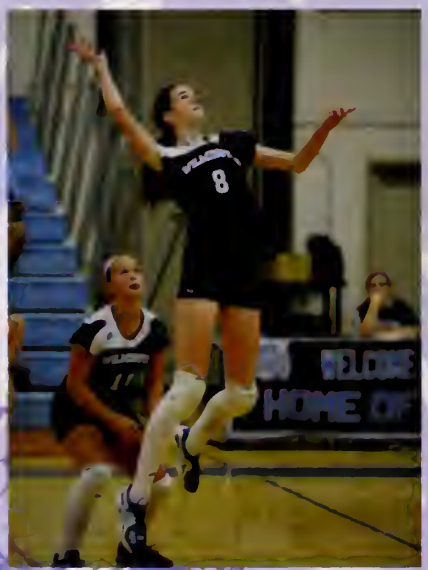
volleyball

After losing six seniors in the previous year, the Wilmington Varsity Volleyball team knew they were in for a tough season. The girls finished with a 7-13 overall record in Middlesex Small League, under head coach Megan Sheehy. The young team fought hard in many games taking them into five matches. Despite the unrevealing record, the team showed great effort and worked hard each day in practice. The girls proved to be productive and their hard work paid off with some wins. One of the most memorable games could have been caught on Dig Pink day where they faced off against competitive Tewksbury while raising money for breast cancer.

This year's team was led by senior captains Michelle Woods and Lauren Bennett, who both brought immense talent to the team. Michelle Woods played outside mainly but also played all around the court. She brought the team an unstoppable hit, and an overall reliable player, especially in the back row. Lauren Bennett was a strong middle hitter who had huge blocks for the team and had a consistent serve in time of need.

As the team grows older you can expect their record and talent to only improve. Next year the team aims to make the playoffs under leadership from captains Kim Donoghue and Chloe Castellano.



Coaches: Kylie Sundberg and Meghan Sheehy; Team Roster: L. Bennett, M. Woods, C. Brent, C. Brent, M. Hydorn, C. Castellano, H. Reynolds, K. Donoghue, G. Mirabella, M. Murray, H. Brown, K. Connors

The Wilmington Wrestling team completed another successful season this year with a record of 11-13. The Wildcats faced a tough start to the season, but it did not take long to get wins. Lead by captains Cody Halliday and Nick Troy, the team had depth throughout the lineup. The team consisted not only of a strong junior and senior class, but also hardworking sophmore and freshman wrestlers. Facing more away matches this year, the team found ways to win matches on the road, epesically the close ones.

Eight of the fourteen wrestlers qualified for the Division Three State Tournament. Seniors Cody Halliday and Gaven Carta placed in the top 5 of the state tournament and wrestled well in the All-State tournament.

The boys varsity basketball team did a good job keeping their head up after a tough season against many competitive teams. Seniors James Wilkinson, Colin Doherty and Steve Colangelo lead the team in their games, and great effort was put into the season. The season may not have gone their way, but the boys did a great job keeping good sportsmanship throughout the season, despite the discouragements of the season

Team Roster: Z. Abbott, C. Ahern, C. Bennett, S. Colangelo, C. Doherty, K. Keane, T. Letellier, J. MacKinnon, S. Manganelli, R. McEvoy, J. Murphy, J. O'Regan, T. Vibert, R. Walsh, J. Wilkinson, T. Woods

The varsity basketball team was lead by tri-captain seniors, Alexandra Derian, Cailin O'Flaherty, and Michelle Woods. The team had a very successful season this year. They finished with a record of 12-8 which earned them second place in the Middlesex Freedom League. Their game against Melrose, which earned them their tenth win and a playoff berth, was also the last game ever played in the Lawrence Cushing Memorial Gymnasium. After gathering their twelve wins, the lady cats went on to make it to the semifinals of the state tournament, defeating Chelsea and Danvers along the way. Although they fell short of making it to the Tsongas Arena, it was a well fought battle. At the end of the season, senior Michelle Woods, and junior Christa Brent, were named Middlesex League All-stars. The team looks forward to carrying out their winning tradition next year.

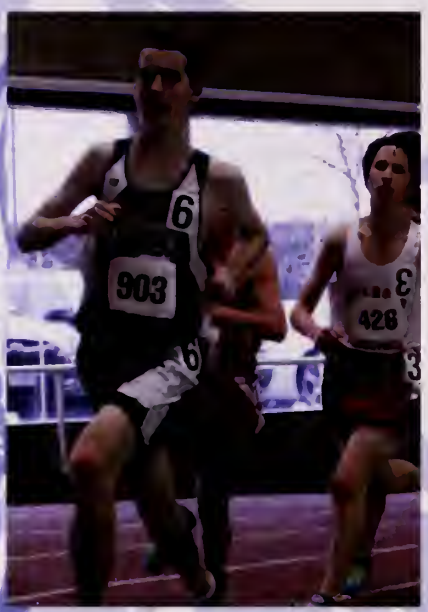
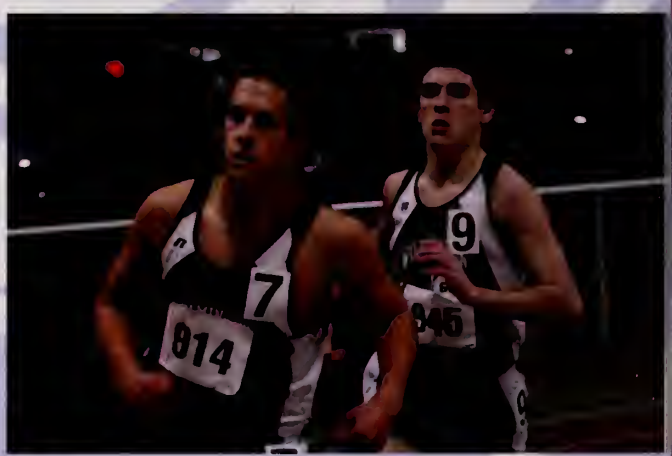
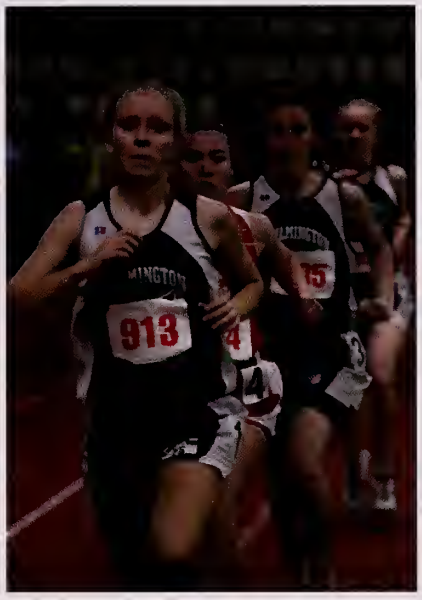
indoor track

The Boys' Indoor Track team had a very successful season this year. The team was the runner-up for the Middlesex League Small School championship, finishing with a record of 4-1 and losing only to Burlington. Several athletes qualified for the Division III State Championship meet. The highlights of the season came from the 4x400 team of Pat Barry, Colin Chase, Andrew Sears, and Steve Halas who were Division III champions, whom, along with shot putter Eli Jennings and 1000 meter runner Steve Halas, qualified for the All-State Championship meet. Jennings and Halas advanced to the New England Championship meet, an achievement that had not been done for several years by any Wilmington athlete, while the 4x400 team had a very strong showing at the state meet. The hard work shown by all of the athletes resulted in a lot of improvement and growth. Coach Kinney, Coach Schell, and Coach Kelley motivated and led this year's team to a great season.







The girls Winter Track Team had a very successful 2012-2013 winter season. The team was lead by senior captains Savannah Hubbard, Katelyn Richardson and Michelle Barnes as well as junior captain Jenn Kannally. Every runner, thrower and jumper performed to her very best and there were many successes in each event.

This season Callie O'Connell (1 mile), Kelly Hartsough, Jackie Parece, Katelyn Richardson (1,000 m), Rachel Alatalo (600 m), Savannah Hubbard (55 m hurdles), Cassie Grasso, Alex Bischoff (300 m), as well as our 4 x 400 m team were all named Middlesex League Indoor Track All Stars.

Throughout the season, we had an exceptional amount of athletes qualify for the state meet at the end of the season. This year, our 4X400 team, which was made up of runners Alex Bischoff, Rachel Alatalo, Cassie Grasso, Kelly Hartsough and Michelle Barnes, placed 5th overall, advancing them to the New England Meet.

Overall, this was a very successful year for the girls Winter Track Team and we are looking forward to another great season next year.

many standout players returning, it was expected the WHS boys hockey team would have another stellar season. Although this put a great deal of pressure on them, this year's team did not disappoint us. Most of the regular season contests were both challenging and rewarding as the Wildcats faced many worthy opponents who brought their "A" game trying to beat the defending State Champions. One of the highlights was an exciting matchup against non-league powerhouse Malden Catholic. In perhaps their strongest performance of the season, the Wildcats battled from beginning to end holding a lead at different times throughout the game. Despite an outstanding offensive effort by senior Dylan DiNatale with his "hatty," the Wildcats fell short losing 4-3. However, they definitely turned a few heads with that game and those dreams about playing in the Super 8 seemed like they could come true.

Coach: Steve Scanlon; Team Roster: B. Carter, A. Castellano, J. Castellano, C. Collins, B. Curtis, J. Davey, S. DeFuria, D. DiNatale, N. Dirienzo, B. Falter, D. Foley, L. Foley, J. Galasso, J. Giroux, M. Marcinkowski, A. McDonough, B. McDonough, C. McGowan, A. O'Neal, C. Owens, B. Pickett, J. Rogers, RJ Townsend

As they continued to showcase their skills and tenacity while racking up wins against Division One foes Arlington, Winchester and Burlington, the Wildcats popped in and out of ESPN Boston's top ten and were included on the Super 8 Watch List. Adding more sparkle to the season were history changing performances by senior Captain Cam Owens and goalie Drew Foley. In mid-February, Owens attained his 136th career point to break the WHS all-time scoring record previously held by his brother, Justin. With solid defense led by senior Assistant Captain Brian Pickett and seniors Cam Collins and Anthony Castellano, Drew Foley was posed for another standout year. With his wins and stats, Foley became the number 1 WHS goalie of all time, and he is only a junior.

Under their new coach, Jeff Covelluzzi, the girls hockey team saw great improvement. By the end of the season they proved to be real competitors in the Middlesex League.

This year's team was led by senior co-captains Katie MacDougal and Ryan Gautreau. Juniors Taylor Perella and Chloe Castellano were offensive forces, along with senior Jane Farrell. The team was also solid defensively, led by senior Colleen Good, juniors Sam DePasquale and Adrianna Kippenburger and sophomore Lauren Fitch. Shelby McHugh stepped up this season and improved her goaltending skills tremendously. She kept the team in many games, saving almost 400 shots this season.

The Wildcat's season peaked with a much anticipated match up against the Division I Reading Rockets. Since this game could decide who would be included in the Elite tournament, both teams had a lot on the line. After a very tight physical contest against our neighbors at a packed Ristuccia Arena, Reading came away with a 3-1 victory. The Wildcats ended the season on a positive note beating Tewksbury on Senior Night. The 2012-2013 team finished the regular season 16-3-2 and captured the Middlesex League Freedom Division Championship title. Owens was named the Middlesex League MVP while Pickett, Drew Foley and Brendan McDonough were also named all-conference players. Along with captains Owens and Pickett, seniors Jake Rogers, Cam Collins, Anthony Castellano, Brooks Carter, Joe Giroux. Nick DiRienzo, and Andrew McDonagh contributed to the team's success.

Although the Wildcats entered the post season as the number 3 seed in the North, they had the talent and experience to win it all. According to the Boston Globe, "it was their tournament to lose." Their first game against Stoneham was closer than it should have been as Wilmington almost blew a 3-0 lead in the first period and were criticized by many for playing as individuals and not as a team. In the second contest against Boston Latin, it was clear the boys had refocused their energies. Fired up by a rowdy and colorful fan section, they powered their way to a 4-1 victory after a close first period. Surprisingly the Lincoln-Sudbury team was not much competition for the Wildcats as they handily defeated them 6-0. Dressed in formal attire and on their best behavior, this time WHS fans provided a more respectable show of support. Wilmington faced Danvers at the Tsongas arena for the Division II North Sectional. Led by junior Brendan McDonough and his hat trick, the Wildcats trounced the Falcons 7-2 and once again were named Division II North Champions.

With high hopes of repeating last year's performance, the Wildcats headed to the Boston Garden on St. Patrick's Day for the Division II final. The Wilmington community showed up in full force to support the team adorned in the school's colors of blue and white and also a large amount of green. Wilmington alumnus Lauren Azevedo got things started with a beautiful rendition of the Star Spangled Banner and then it was time for hockey. Cody McGowan scored the first goal on a feed from DiNatale near the end of the first period. After a scoreless second period, the Wildcats demonstrated their unquestionable dominance in the third with three more goals by McDonough, Jake Rogers and Luke Foley to blank Franklin 4-0. As the final seconds of the game ticked away on the jumbotron and music from U2 filled the garden, it truly was a "Beautiful Day" for the Wildcat hockey team and all their devoted fans. Once again the team had a police escort home and then headed to an after party where they celebrated and marveled at their amazing twice-in-a-lifetime accomplishment of being crowned State Champions.

national honor society

Advisors: Mrs. Maura Tucker*

This year's National Honor Society was dedicated to giving back to the community and living up to the National Honor Society's standard of scholarship, leadership, merit, and service. Our group this year was led by Kaitlin Kinsella, Erik Alatalo, Ling Zhong, Meaghan Bransfield, and Katelyn Richardson. One of the most important components of WHS NHS is service; this year we have done a wide range of community service projects to give back to our community. One of the major projects every year for the Wilmington NHS chapter is tutoring. Every week students from our group go out in the community and tutor Wilmington students in all grades. We also had a food drive to collect food for Wilmington's Food Pantry. This year we also had a group of children who went to Knowledge Beginnings, a child daycare, and read Dr. Seuss books on Dr. Seuss day. Our newest ongoing project has been volunteering at Wilmington's Health Care Center to help make shadow boxes for senior citizens. We will continue to do different projects throughout the community to fulfill our part in giving back to Wilmington.

We visited the pathology department at Lahey Clinic where we toured the lab and tried out some of the lab equipment. Then we spent time with Dr. Pryzjemski in clinical pathology where he showed us surgical removals. We were able to see and touch actual body organs and see the difference between a normal one and a diseased one. The Science Club also co-hosted the 2013 Talent Show.

freshman class officers

The class officers of 2016 consist of Deven Langenfeld, Bridget Sullivan, Jullia Pham, and Courtney MacDonald. With the help of class advisor, Ms. Bortone, they created multiple fundraisers. These fundraisers included the selling of sweatpants, a dinner night at local restaurants to raise money for Mitochondrial Disease, and a raffle for the principals parking places for a week. They plan to fundraise more money in hopes of having a memorable journey through the Wilmington High School.

Class Advisors: Ms. Lisa Bellavia and Ms. Jennifer Fidler

Over the past school year, the Sophomore Class Officers continued the hard work they had started as Freshmen to build funds for the Class of 2015. During the winter, the class hosted a hair dye fundraiser in which students and faculty donated money to six different dye colors; the winning color was seen on the heads of Ms. Bellavia and Ms. Fidler for most of Quarter 3! Along with the hair dye fundraiser, the officers planned several other events to raise money, looking for alternatives to the Spring Fling after the gym was demolished in February.

In addition to fundraising, the officers began researching potential venues for next year's Junior Prom by forming a prom committee. By planning ahead, next year's prom is certain to be a huge success!

The Class Officers have been working hard this year on fundraising events. They hosted Dining for a Cause at Wilmington 99 Restaurant, co-hosted the 2013 Talent Show, and co-hosted the Prom Expo and Fashion Show. The Class Officers also organized a "Support Our Troops" bracelet fundraiser to help raise funds for Army families. In addition to fundraising, the Class Officers also worked together on the Spirit Week wall and coordinating the Junior Prom.

The officers have worked hard this year to organize their Senior Prom as well as many fundraising events. Events and other fundraisers sponsored by the class have included the Student vs. Faculty Dodge ball tournament, Prom Expo & Fashion Show with the Class of 2014, and the Senior vs. Faculty Basketball game. The officers would also like to thank the efforts of the volunteers of the Senior Class Committee as their dedication to supporting their class has made a great impact! The Class of 2013 Officers have put countless hours, serving in a leadership role for the past four years, in hopes that everyone will enjoy their senior prom and final moments at WHS. "My Wish"

I hope that the days come easy and the moments pass slow,
And each road leads you where you want to go,
And if you're faced with a choice, and you have to choose,
I hope you choose the one that means the most to you.
And if one door opens to another door closed,
I hope you keep on walkin' till you find the window,
If it's cold outside, show the world the warmth of your smile,

But more than anything, more than anything,
My wish, for you, is that this life becomes all that you want it to,
Your dreams stay big, and your worries stay small,
You never need to carry more than you can hold,
And while you're out there getting where you're getting to,
I hope you know somebody loves you, and wants the same things too,
Yeah, this, is my wish.

I hope you never look back, but ya never forget,
All the ones who love you, in the place you left,
I hope you always forgive, and you never regret,
And you help somebody every chance you get,
Oh, you find God's grace, in every mistake,
And you always give more than you take.

But more than anything, yeah, and more than anything,
My wish, for you, is that this life becomes all that you want it to,
Your dreams stay big, and your worries stay small,
You never need to carry more than you can hold,
And while you're out there getting where you're getting to,
I hope you know somebody loves you, and wants the same things too,
Yeah, this, is my wish.

Wishing you all the best the world has to offer Jules,
All our love, Mom, Dad and Kevin

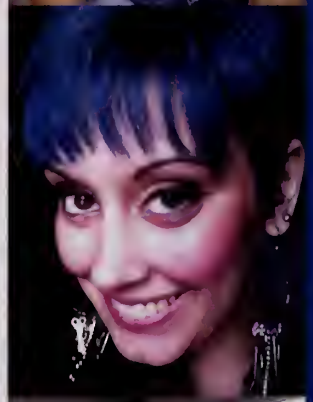
Nathan Ricardo

We are so very proud of you! You have worked so hard, and have always been such a joy to us. We hope all your dreams come true. Stay happy, keep smiling and dream big!! CONGRATULATIONS!!!
Love, Dad, Mom and Ashley

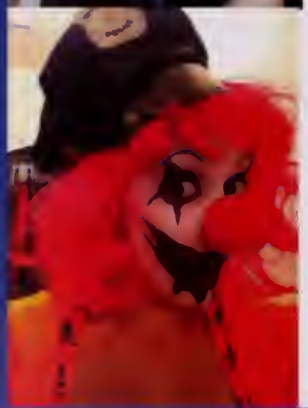
Kendra,

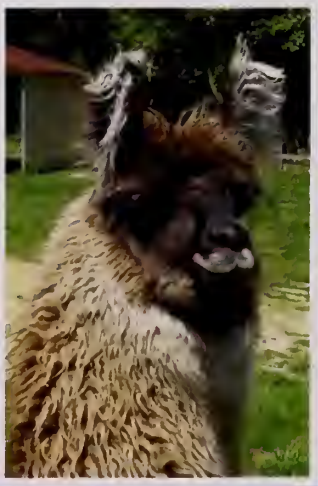
As you graduate and get ready to start school in the fall, it leaves us with mixed emotions. Just as you are happy that high school is ending, we find ourselves feeling both happy and sad that our little girl is growing up. It doesn't seem all that long ago that we were following the big yellow school bus taking you to your first day of kindergarten. Yes, we were slightly over protective but you know how your father is. There will be some challenges as you begin creating a life of your own, but if you approach those challenges with the same enthusiasm and courage that you have up until now, you will find your way in life and you will be happy.

We are so proud of all that you have accomplished and we know you will succeed in whatever you do. We can't wait to see what the future holds for you!

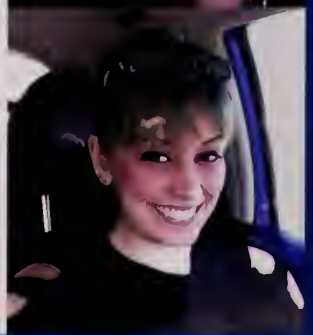


Love always and forever,
Mom, Dad & Aaron





P.S. We were going to get you a llama for graduation, but we got you a nice picture of one instead.



Wilmington High School
